“ Lou,
You welcomed our family into your family with an open mind and open arms. Over the years we shared amazing meals - especially with your pies for dessert - as well as laughter and love. It is hard to believe that I won't hear your wonderful laugh or your warm words again, and I will miss being hugged by one of the world's all time greats. You will be much missed and long remembered with love.

“ Annie and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget Lou's storytelling, and I think he did that to get out of exercising with me! Please accept my condolences, and know that I am thinking of you and your family at this time

“ I was very sorry to learn of Lou's passing. He was a dear friend and a lovely guy in every way....intelligent, generous, spiritual, introspective and funny. Even with his poor health, for the last few years, he continued to brighten your day if you were lucky enough to be in his company. I have no doubt that this wonderful man is strolling leisurely down Heaven's paths in all of his glory. Rest in peace, Louie and God bless Anne, his children and grandchildren as they carry on.

“ Thank you Mr Sacchetti. My father truly loved you and shared the joy of your life by always giving us one of your books at Christmas. If you author more ... please let me know so I can continue dad's legacy by acquiring future books for my sisters as Christmas.
