“ I am so very sorry. I had no idea that Del was terminally ill. The last time I saw him he looked great. And, when I spoke with him last week, he sounded great. I am so sorry, Vicky. I will always remember him as a gentle giant. A big sweetie. Even when he was a little boy he was tall for his age...I think he got that from his Dad. I will keep you and your sons in my prayers for peace and that He keep His hands upon you with wisdom and guidance in the days ahead.
