“ Some additional information about Mom.

She is predeceased by her son-in-law George O'Toole and her grandson Scott O'Toole. She's also survived by her granddaughter Bridget O'Toole.

She enjoyed going to concerts with her radio announcer daughter in the 80s and got backstage for most of the heavy metal hair bands. Bon Jovi kissed her and she had conversations with Bruce Dickinson among other rock stars. She enjoyed going to her son's concerts as well. She was also very instrumental in her grand daughter's, acting career and pageants. She took her son and daughter and all of his friends to the drag races all of the time and was the mom who had all the friends over. When she was younger, she roller skated all around Pennsgrove and danced on the Wilson line. She also traveled all over the United States with her sister Marie and husband, William who was a lieutenant, colonel in the United States Army. She enjoyed cruises with her family, art museums and art exhibits and had a full life.
