“ I worked with Alice many years ago at St. Francis. She was a very special and talented nurse. Her kindness and gentle presence was a gift to her patients. She was a wonderful colleague. Her sense of humor carried all of us through difficult times. Additionally, after work, her talent on the "comb" entertained us, not to mention her total mastery of the words to every song ever written which was a marvel to behold. We have missed her in the past few years, but I know that she leaves her "J's" (our name for you, her daughters, since we had not met you) rich with memories of the good times and her funny stories. All of us who worked with her have never forgotten what she gave us as colleagues and as a very special friend; we call ourselves privileged to have known her.

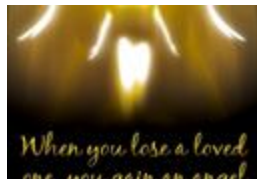

I am sorry for your loss.

*Sincerely,
Elizabeth Burke*
