

Alma Irene Clothier

May 23, 1929 - February 23, 2021

Alma Irene Clothier, age 91, passed away on February 23, 2021 in Ocala, Florida of a life well-lived. She was born May 23, 1929 in Dublin, Georgia to Alton and Gertrude Sikes, the oldest of three children.

She attended the Pennsville Public School System and graduated from Salem High School when her parents moved to Pennsville, New Jersey. As a young woman, Alma volunteered at the USO as a Junior Hostess helping to entertain the servicemen by dancing, talking and playing games with them.

She worked for many years at Anchor Hocking Glass Corporation and retired as an Assistant Paymaster, wearing many “hats” in the office. She loved animals and was a big supporter of the Humane Society.

Her many activities included reading, walking, going to the Gym, sewing, crocheting, movies with her friends, and taking trips with her family. She loved life and was thankful that she was able to attend each of her grandchildren’s weddings, even dancing at them. She also was a talented artist and enjoyed photography.

In addition to her companion of forty years, Joseph Bonarrigo, Alma is survived by her daughter, Terri Hogate and her husband, Belford and her son, James Carpenter; her grandchildren: Karen Hurley and her husband, Patrick;

Mark Hogate and his wife, Shannon; James Hogate and his wife, Brittany; her great-grandchildren: Patrick, Giada, Liam, Norah and Sam; and her nieces and nephew. She is pre-deceased by her two brothers: Donald and Alton, Jr.; her father, Alton and her mother, Gertrude.

In respect of her wishes, a private family graveside service will be held. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Humane Society.
