

Amanda Tara DeGennaro

August 15, 1972 - March 25, 2024

Amanda Tara DeGennaro 52, went to meet her maker on Monday, March 25th, 2024.

She was born August 15, 1972 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Phillip and Constance Bauer. She was preceded in death by her son Daniel DeGennaro. She is survived by husband Matthew DeGennaro, her sons Joseph (Briley) DeGennaro, Jonathan DeGennaro, sisters Brenda Bauer-Scanti, and Joleen Bauer (Leo). She was a doting Aunt to her niece, Alexa and her nephews Antonio, Declan and Micah, Often sending them “love boxes”.

While she held several professional titles across many industries (including hospitality, health care, sales, and logistics); she retired to what was her most rewarding role as homemaker and full-time family planner. She devoted many hours to volunteering such as coaching her little sister’s basketball team, as well as fundraising and participating in JDRF Walk-a-Thons (her team: Amanda’s Dreamers), and enjoyed giving her time to the less fortunate and to the disabled. One of the many things she took pride in was organizing a blood drive every year in memory of her late son Daniel. Amanda could make a trip to the bank an adventure, but especially treasured her family vacations to Ocean City, Maryland. But a beach need not be present—any quality time with her family was among her favorite pastimes.

Please join us for a visitation from 10:00AM-11:00AM Saturday April 6th.
Followed by a memorial service held at Ashcraft Funeral Home at 11:00AM in Pennsville, NJ.

We ask that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the JDRF (Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation) for which she so passionately championed.

“ Amanda was a very special lady. I enjoyed talking to her and just being around her always made me smile. She had many health issues but fought strongly against them. She loved her family so much. I will miss Amanda. She's not suffering anymore and for that I'm happy. My sincere condolences to her family. Rest In Peace Amanda.
