

Angelina "Angie" DiPietro Yulo

January 18, 1920 - April 23, 2017

Angelina "Angie" DiPietro Yulo of Carneys Point, NJ passed away surrounded by loved ones on April 23, 2017 at Cooper Hospital in Camden, NJ. She was 97.

Born January 18, 1920 in Penns Grove, Angie was the daughter of the late George and Filomena (DiGuilio) DiPietro. In 1947 she married her husband of 69 years, Daniel Joseph of Camden. After only a few months in the city, they would live the rest of their lives together near her childhood home of Penns Grove, surrounded by her family and friends from her mother's birthplace, Valle San Giovanni, Abruzzo, Italy.

Angie was kind, strong-willed, and intelligent. After graduating Penns Grove High School, she worked at Woolworth's 5 and 10. She was a secretary for the Pedricktown DOD during the war and took night classes until graduating from Goldey-Beacom College in Wilmington. She continued at the DOD until her son was born and later worked as a secretary for Jane A. Williams Real Estate.

Angie was skilled and adventurous in the kitchen: trying out new recipes, perfecting traditional Italian dishes, baking cookies and her signature chiffon cakes, and teaching everyone how to make pasta. Family meant everything to her. Her house was ever open for company or big family parties and she always made time to visit family and friends, near or far. She adored her grandchildren, teaching them pasta-making, cooking, and baking secrets; chaperoning school trips; caring for them when sick; and hosting countless sleepovers.

Every night Angie said the rosary and prayed for her family. Each Sunday she went to church until she could no longer drive and thereafter watched mass on TV. She was an active member of the St. James' Parish community.

She is survived by her loving husband, Daniel Joseph; son, Daniel Michael and wife, Patricia (Nothdurft) of Clarksboro; granddaughter, Jennifer and spouse, Daniel Thomas Lay; grandson, Daniel John; great-grandson, Sebastian Lay; sister, Susan (DiPietro) Davis; and sister-in-law, Marie (LaRosa) DiPietro both of Carneys Point. In addition to her parents, Angie was predeceased by five brothers, Antonio, Albert, Alfonso, George and Fredrick, and one sister, Santa.

Family and friends can call on Sunday, April 30, 2017 from 6 to 8 pm at the Ashcraft Funeral Home, 740 South Broadway, Pennsville, NJ. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 am Monday at Corpus Christi RC Church, 369 Georgetown Road, Carneys Point. Interment will follow in Eglinton Cemetery, Clarksboro, NJ. Flowers may be sent to Ashcraft Funeral Home or contributions made in her memory to Catholic Charities at <https://catholiccharitiesusa.org/>.

“ Oh my Aunt Angie-- there is so much to say that mere words can't express. She was an integral part of my life since she was 21 when I was born. I remember those wonderful shopping trips to Strawbridges in Philly where this little farm kid got to ride on the elevator! Her cooking skills were supreme and she graciously provided me with every recipe I requested. She was devoted to her family who have continued passing on the love and devotion to their children. I'm so grateful to Dan and Pat for calling me so I could speak with her so often these last weeks. Rest in peace my wonderful Aunt. You are always in my heart.

“ My Aunt Angie; someone who was in my life for all of my life. I vividly remember being held by Aunt Angie before I could walk. She took me to the site where my home was being built and told me that this would soon be my home. She held me as I watched my father, uncles and great grandfather on scaffolds laying the foundation of my childhood home. As I was growing up, I remember she, my sister, my Grandmom and Aunt Susie sitting at the wooden table in Grandmoym's kitchen learning the nuances of rolling gnocchi. No birthday went by without Aunt Angie's special Italian cream cake! A visit to her house was filled with olfactory delights wafting from the kitchen, warm hugs and great conversations about loved ones, the past and what future plans you were thinking about. This incredible woman profoundly influenced the the woman I am today. She showered my sister and I with love, acting as our mother figure for a time, and I willremember her always with the utmost love and respect. Besides, she brought a great son into the world whom, with his lovely wife Pat, started a whole line of great people I am proud to be related to. Thank you Aunt Angie. You will live within me forever. No goodbyes

“ Mom you were the true definition of a Mother. You were loving and caring. You gave me constant guidance while instilling a deep love of family. You taught me to respect everyone and made me the strong, centered person that I am today. My memories of your love of cooking and more importantly your love for teaching my wife, daughter and son your techniques cannot be defined. I will not miss you mom because you are with me every day of my life. I will see you in everything I do. Most importantly you have passed on your love to my wife and children making them an image of yourself. And that smile you gave your great grandson as you held him in your arms was the true meaning of life and I will see you in his eyes forever.

*I love you always,
Your Son.*
