

Anthony Salvatore Arcidiacono

May 21, 2023

Anthony Salvatore Arcidiacono, age 95, of Carneys Point, passed away surrounded by family on May 21, 2023 after complications from a fall. He proudly served in the Army and obtained his engineering degree from Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University) while working for DuPont as a draftsman. "Archie," as he was known by many, went on to have a long career with DuPont as an engineer. He retired in 1991 with 35 years' service at Chambers Works and in Wilmington. In his retirement years, he was never without a project around the house, in the yard or with his family. Anthony will be remembered for his keen mind, problem-solving abilities, calm spirit and gentle guidance. He is survived by Angela, his wife of almost 68 years; his daughter Karen Arcidiacono of Dover DE and her children Angela and Rob Barringer; his son Brian Arcidiacono, daughter-in-law Crystal Arcidiacono and their children Anthony and Isla of Newark DE. He is also survived by his brother Sam, his daughter Sandra and granddaughter Chelsea; several sisters/brothers-in-law who were good friends and their children.

Relatives and friends are invited to visitation on Friday May 26, 2023 10am till 11am at St. Gabriel the Archangel located at 369 Georgetown Road in Carneys Point, NJ. Funeral mass to follow at 11am. A military burial at the Salem County Veterans Cemetery will follow the funeral mass.

Please remember Archie by contributing to your church or favorite charity as the family requests that you do not send flowers.
