September 29, 1963 - October 7, 2020

He was born on September 29th, 1963 in Salem Hospital to John and Grace (Raine) Cafaro. Jay grew up in Salem and graduated Salem High in 1981. He is also survived by his father John Cafaro, his sister Mary Polanco (Rudy), his brother Robert Cafaro, his sister Robin Cafaro, his nieces Courtney Assraf (Jason), Leah Cafaro, Trinity Cafaro, nephew Nick Cafaro, as well as other loving family and numerous life-long friends. “ My Deepest Sympathies to the Cafaro family. What can I say about my childhood friend!!! We were teammates on the Salem Oaks Midget football team. Where he was our quarterback. We had a play called "Bomb to Woods". Jay could never throw the the football that far. So he would pitch it to James Walker & he would throw it.. Jay had a serious growth spurt in high school, because he went from playing quarterback to playing our center & linebacker. Growing up in Salem, we were more than friends. We were family!!! I'm gonna miss u my friend

“ To the Cafaro Family,
I wish to send my heartfelt sympathies. Jay was such a great guy. I remember when he broke his leg skiing on our senior class trip. Jay always had a smile and was a great buddy. I still have memories of him today; the best was when he had a bunch of us over to his house, cool times. I will continue to remember him as a friend. God bless and keep the Family.
With love and respect,
Rev. Lloyd Noel

“ Such sad news about another wonderful young person from my past. Jay and my son, David, were friends when they were young. He was one of the nicest, most respectful young people I knew. They played football together on the Salem Oaks midget football team, and went away to football camp for a week one summer together, with another friend, Courtney Ridgeway. I so enjoyed spending time with them as kids. That's how I remember Jay ... a sweet, respectful, handsome young man. I can't imagine him being any different when he grew up, and I'm sure he will be missed by family and friends. My thoughts and prayers go out to all.
