“ Beverly was probably the kindest, gentlest soul I've ever known. I know that she is in the Kingdom of Heaven reaping her rewards for being a good and faithful servant. There is no reason to worry for her any longer. Make your mind let go of her time of suffering, hers has. She is whole again and oh so happy. I can only imagine (Jackie).

To my cousins, her siblings, my heart aches for you having lost her. This is where the hurt lies. Having recently lost my brother, Roy, the feelings are still very fresh and I know how much it hurts. You wanted to help her, but you couldn't. And, that weighs heavy on a heart and mind. At some point, I hope you can bring yourself to rejoice in her Home going and plan on seeing her when you arrive. I love you all and wish we saw each other more.

To Mona, my other Mom. You have seen so much in your time here on this earth, but losing your child has to be one of the hardest things to live through. I know you know that Beverly is living her best of times now. What we all strive to attain. Seeing our Lord face to face and being welcomed into Heaven. I hope you can keep this in the forefront of your mind as your heart heals from her loss. I also wish I saw you more. Our past is full of fun and loving memories that I hold very dear to my heart. I will always love you and my heart will smile at the thought of you.

“ With Beverly as the eldest and I the youngest, she often took care of me. She was always kind and I can honestly say that she never said a cross word to me. Her disposition was soft and patient. Bev, mom and I loved to talk about the Bible, especially end times prophecy. Now that she has gone on before us, I can't stop thinking about the lyrics to my favorite song by MercyMe, I Can Only Imagine.

I can only imagine what it will be like when I walk by your side. I can only imagine what my eyes will see when your face is before me. I can only imagine. I can only imagine. Surrounded by your glory what will my heart feel? Will I dance for you Jesus or in awe of you be still? Will I stand in your presence? Or to my knees will I fall? Will I sing hallelujah? Will I be able to speak at all? I can only imagine. I can only imagine.

I can only imagine when that day comes and I find myself standing in the Son. I can only imagine when all I will do is forever, forever worship you. I can only imagine. I can only imagine. Surrounded by your glory what will my heart feel? Will I dance for you Jesus? Or in awe of you be still? Will I stand in your presence or to my knees will I fall? Will I sing hallelujah? Will I be able to speak at all? I can only imagine, yeah, I can only imagine.

Well, Big Sis, you are not imagining anymore! Love you, Jackie
