

Bobby Hess III

December 19, 1989 - April 23, 2021

If love alone could have saved you, you would have lived forever!

King Long Beard aka SlimJim, Bobby's dream was to create. He was a huge fan of StarCraft/ Diablo and World of Warcraft. Gaming was a large part of his worlds ambition.

The human Google of movies; the guru of gaming; A computer wiz with a heart of gold. You could never hold a grudge because his wit was ready with a joke or a laugh to make you smile and forget how the argument even started.

To know him was to love him, his charisma was contagious, his heart was pure, and his presence was warm.

He enjoyed his mom's food creations, cracking jokes, his Sleep (lol) and Certain things nature had to offer but most important

His mama.. Bobby was a hands down mamas boy, and that was more than ok with her.

Bobby's life was a blessing and his memory is a treasure, he's loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

Bobby is survived by his Mother Esther Pangle; his sisters Esther Clark (Brian Clark) and Pamela Lizzio; brothers James Pangle III (Michelle Cobb) and Louie Pangle (Jessica Doran);and nephews Russell Stanton, James Pangle IV, Myles Blankenhorn,and Xaiden Combs; and his niece Santasia Gresham
