“ To Brittana's Family: I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". (2 Cor. 1: 3, 4). Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ I am standing by the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sun and sky come down to mingle with each other.
Then someone at my side says, ‘There she goes! Gone where? Gone from my sight – that is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the places of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her.
And just at the moment when someone at my side says, ‘There she goes! ‘ , there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout : ‘Here she comes!’
In remembrance, love and admiration of Brittana Lynne Flectcher, an object of beauty and strength. Susan

“ To my best friend, these past four days have felt like years knowing you are no longer here to talk to. There are so many memories we have shared together since we meant, school days, sports, sleepovers, boys, becoming adults, having babies, matching Dane & I finally tie the knot and much more. I will cherish every single one of those for the rest of my life. You were an amazing friend and I thank you for always being there for me when I needed you. Dane loved you like a sister and my boys always thought their "Crazy" Aunt Britt was just too funny. I now look at your pictures and think of our memories with tears strolling down my face. I know at some point these tears will turn into a smile or laugh. I promise I will never let Brooklynne not know how loving, strong and smart her mother was. I now look at her even more and see you, she is now the living part of you she will carry you with her in her heart just like the rest of us will. I will never say goodbye to you, just see you later. You and Robbie better behave up there in the clouds. I feel like I could continue to write forever so I could just talk to you. Rest in peace Brittana Lynne, I will remember you, miss you and love you FOREVER....BFF
Love, Dee
