“ Carol was and is a true Angel! I have never known a more giving, caring, kind soul. Despite her personal suffering, she spent all of her time and energy doing for others. She could prepare a magnificent feast for friends and bake amazing goodies; all the while unable to eat them herself, because of her many health problems. I know that she was happily welcomed to Heaven, where she is now eternally smiling, laughing, dancing and eating whatever she wants! Carol will be missed by many. My condolences to her devoted husband Charlie and all of her family and friends.

I would very much appreciate being notified of the details of her Memorial Life Celebration. Carol's life is truly one to celebrate! hele nemasiko@gmail.com

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Carol's passing. She was a very sweet, uplifting woman who was able to turn an amazing meal into a spectacular experience. In my lifetime, I've never met anyone who was able to create such a dining adventure quite like her. I will miss you Carol and hope you have now found peace from your medical hurdles. Kerry S.

“ Carol was a patient of mine, rather I should say, a friend. I can still hear her kind and soft voice requesting something, and she was almost apologetic. All I can say, is that she was simply one of the kindest, sweetest lady that I have had the pleasure of knowing and I am very saddened to hear of her death. My condolences to her family and friends.
