I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere sympathy. While I never met your wife, she must have been a beautiful soul and soulmate. Knowing you and your family growing up in Deepwater, you must have been the same to her. May God grant her eternal rest and peace and may her memory be eternal.
My best to you and wishes for your safety and health.

My dear sweet friend of 50 + years Jayne I will miss you so much. You were not only a great friend but an inspiration to all who knew you. I was truly blessed to have you as my friend from Kindergarten to present. So many laughs we shared. My first reaction was that this is just not fair and then I realized that you are now in such a beautiful place where there is no sickness, no division, no financial struggles, no hatred and ugliness in the world and I realize that you are the lucky one. You have reached that goal that we all strive for and that is eternal life with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is us who are hurting because of your absents. When I realize that, I am comforted that my dear friend is no longer suffering and she is in the loving arms of our Lord. And one day, we will meet again. To Jeff and Tyler, she loved you both so much and I know that she will be watching over you both. Alice, she loved her dear sister. She was always so proud to call you her sister. And Sheryl, you 2 were definitely 2 peas in a pod. She loved you dearly. You were so much more than a cousin to her. You were her faithful friend. Prayers of comfort and strength to you all. R.I.P. Jayne my dear friend.
