

Damon Edward Miller Sr.

May 27, 1971 - March 19, 2020

On March 19, 2020, Damon Miller age 48, loving husband, father, grandfather and lifelong resident of Pedricktown, NJ, passed away suddenly. He spent most of his time as a lifelong employee with Mexichem Specialty Resins as a mechanic, with 25+ years of service. A former member of Logan Volunteer Fire Company, and an active member of Pedricktown Volunteer Ambulance Squad, he was a devoted individual who often assisted with his community. Damon, an avid fisherman, enjoyed fishing whether in a puddle or the canyons with his brother and lifelong friend, Steve Smith.

Damon was preceded by his father, Lester H. Miller and his son, Christopher Miller. Damon is survived by his loving wife of 27 years; Candy Miller, Son; Damon Miller Jr., Daughter; Danielle Miller, and Granddaughter; Rhaelynd Peverelle. Damon is also survived by his mother; Evelyn Miller, Brothers; Bill Miller (Arleen) and Robert Miller (Tracy) and nieces and nephew; Nicole Ferriola (AJ), Rochelle Miller, Ryan Miller and Brooklyn Miller.

Gone Fishin' Forever.

A service will be announced at a later date due to current events. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the family's GoFundMe page.
