“Dad, I love you and I miss you more than words will "ever" describe. Living with you this year has been the best year of my life. I will live on in your legacy and make you proud. I am so proud to be the daughter of such an amazing man. No one will "ever" fill your shoes. I know that your in the paradise of Heaven and I just hope and pray that one day, when God calls on me, we will be together again. In the mean time, I promise to finish school, and be the best sister that I can possibly be to Ang, along with many many other things. I love you Dad with ALL of my heart. Xoxo
Thank you to everyone for your comfort and support.
Love, Lisa M. Gagliardi

“Daanny I always loved you like a father, I'm so glad we got to get so close again. I will always love you and never forget you. You called me son the whole time the last time that we went golfing, and that meant so much to me. You we're the most resonsible and hard working man I have ever met in my whole life. You made me the man that I am now and I could never thank you enough. I love you and I know that you are watching me and will always be with me. You told me that you were going to spread you wings, and Danny your wings and arms have been spread open wider than anyone that has ever spread them for me. I love you and will never forget you.
Your Son Always, Larry
