

David Patrick Flanigan

May 1, 1934 - December 20, 2024

David Patrick Flanigan, passed peacefully on December 20th, 2024.

David was born on May 1st, 1934 in Wilmington, Delaware. He was predeceased by his parents, Clay and Lilian Flanigan.

He is survived by his loving wife of 34 years, Lucy Flanigan (nee Vasta); his three children, David Flanigan Jr., Judith Boden (William), and Patrick Flanigan; and two grandchildren, Brooke and Haley Boden, whom he adored. He was step-father to David Bassinger (Julia) and Theresa Reyes, and step-grandfather to Dylan, Emily, Luke, Sebastian, Alexis, and John.

Dave graduated from Penns Grove High School and served in the United States Army with the famous and fearless 82nd Airborne Division. He was employed and worked tirelessly for 40 plus years at DuPont Chambers Works. Dave was an avid NASCAR fan and enjoyed racing himself in his youth. He later enjoyed riding his father's antique Indian motorcycles and working on cars, especially his beautiful 1950 Chevy Bel Air. Dave lived to walk his dogs (Snoopy and Shannon) all over Pennsville, where he was always available to stop and talk about anything and everything. Dave was a great man who loved to bake and his famous chocolate was everyone's favorite.

Relatives and friends are invited to his visitation on Thursday January 2nd, 2025 from 9am till 10am followed by Mass of Christian Burial at 10 am at Saint Gabriel the Archangel Parish 369 Georgetown Road Carneys Point, NJ 08069. Burial will be held at Lawnside Cemetery in Pilesgrove, NJ.
