“ I met Debbie when I volunteered to help in the religious store and then again with the Mother Teresa Outreach with our church. She was a very nice person, very helpful and very giving of herself for others. She is definitely gone too soon. May she rest in peace in the arms of Our Lord. Sincere Sympathy to Debbie's family from Debbie Robinson

“ Condolences to Terry, Jr., Teresa and Family. Debbie will surely be missed.

My fondest memories are from when Mrs. Pagnatto was still alive, when everyone would spend time in the kitchen while she made amazing meals, from scratch, for us all to enjoy. It was always a happy gathering, lots of laughs and smiles.

I am sorry not to be able to be there in person for the service. My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ Sending love to Terry Jr., the love of Debbie’s life and her proudest accomplishment. Debbie and I just had dinner together in July and she was sharing how proud she was of him, their fun times down the shore and showing me pictures.

I’ll miss my longtime friend who I spent endless hours driving around with as a teenager and getting into mischief that she always thought was funny! Debbie was her own person and lived life on her terms. I admired that!

It’s heartbreaking to know she is gone way to soon. ☐❤️ Hugs 😊
