“ She told me her time was near. She told me that for 20 years. This time she meant it and I didn't listen. She even said goodbye and I didn't hear her. She bought me a "goodbye" gift, and I didn't know why. I will never be able to tell her I am sorry. I am sorry I didn't listen. I am sorry I didn't hear her. I am sorry that she cannot hear me now. Her heart was big but her body was small and ailing. I take solace in her new journey, knowing that wherever she roams, she will be in my heart. Goodbye Denise. I love you. "Butch".

“ So sad to hear the new of Denise. Denise and I were quite close in high school and unfortunately lost touch after that as I moved out of state. I'm now in Ontario Canada. I spent many weekends at the Morris place in Deepwater as I kept my horse there for awhile. This was during the 70's. My sympathies to Denise's family.
