“ My deepest sympathy & condolences to the Buza family. Ms D, as the dancing world called her, was a wonderful Lady! She was the picture of a ballerina with grace, charm, elegance and beauty. Her voice was gentle yet firm with discipline when needed. Her students will always remember what an excellent teacher she was to all of them. Even though our paths crossed for only a short time, I was blessed to have Ms D as a chapter in my life. This world has truly lost a special Lady! Delores will be missed by many. But, now she is in a better place and reunited with her loving husband. Rest in Peace.

“ My deepest sympathy to Dee's family and friends (too many to mention). Dee blessed us all with your elegance and class. She shared her beautiful talent of dance and changed the lives of many students. I will miss the many great conversations and good times we shared. The Angels will be so happy to have you in their company. Rest in Peace my friend, you are truly missed.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Ms D was a woman who captured me at the opening of her front door many moons ago when I went there with my eldest daughter to see about dance. She is one of a kind, a class act! A woman of timeless beauty and talent. They just don't make gals like her anymore and she will be missed! Godspeed Ms D!
