

Dolores M. Warner

July 25, 1944 - November 3, 2025

Dolores M. Warner, age 81 and resident of Woodstown, NJ, passed away peacefully on November 3, 2025, at her son's home in Kentucky after a long illness. The family would like to extend their heartfelt appreciation to Debra for her wonderful care and love during this time.

Dolores was the longtime owner of Grammyland Daycare in Pilesgrove, NJ, where she cared for countless children over the years. A dedicated member of her community, she was among the first women to volunteer in EMS and was a Life Member of the Woodstown Volunteer Ambulance Squad, where she also served as Transportation Officer.

Together with her husband, Barry R. Warner, Dolores owned and operated C.R. Warner, Inc., which began as an oil delivery business and grew to become the first licensed oil recycler in New Jersey.

Dolores will be remembered for her selflessness, compassion, and dedication in all aspects of her life. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Barry R. Warner. She had a deep love for her pets, especially Molly and Pepper.

She is survived by her children: Deborah (John) Ashcraft, Edwina (Jerry) Best, Vincent (Debra) Wentzell, and Marilyn (Nick) Carmen; grandchildren: John L. Ashcraft, Grant (Destiny) Ashcraft, Jonathan Best, Lauren (Mike) Eller, Debralee (Benji) Rodriguez, Antonette Rodriguez, Joseph Carmen, and Ava Carmen; and ten great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held on December 26, 2025 at 11am at Lawnside Cemetery in Woodstown.
