“My most sincere condolences. My mother Ruth Jones, was Aunt Doris' sister. My brother David and I plan to come to the services, though Norm is out west on business. Aunt Doris is one of the finest people I have ever known. I have always loved her and am very grateful to be her nephew. I can remember corn on the cobb and tomatoe gravy on toast at her house. And Christmas. Aunt Doris like her sisters and brothers loved the Christmas holidays. My life is enriched when I recall her smiles, her quietude, her humor ,her eyes when she smiled... There is so much more... My phone number is 302-292-3658. Please call me Alan Hitchner when the time has been set for the services.
