“ I was so sorry to read of the passing of Mrs. Gemberling. She and my mother, Deb Lacy, were very good friends. They worked together for the auxiliary at the hospital and spent a great deal of time together. My mother would also spend time with her at the beach and they always had a great time. Sadly, they are both gone now but they are together with many of their hospital friends. I bet the meetings in heaven will be even more fun now! My thoughts are with you during this difficult time.
