

Edith E. Handy

March 15, 2025

Edith E. (Hahl) Handy, affectionately known as Edie, passed away peacefully on March 15, 2025, at the age of 90, returning home to the Lord after a life filled with beauty and grace. She was preceded in death by her cherished husband of 68 years, Howard T. (Ted) Handy, as well as her parents, siblings, and beloved daughter-in-love, Annette (Patton) Simmerman. Edie leaves behind her four children: Delsea Schaffer (David), Leanne Zilinski (widow of Walter Zilinski), Trobie Thompson (Tommy), and Allen Handy (Sharon), along with 7 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, 3 nieces, and 1 nephew.

A devoted member of Crosspoint Wesleyan Church for many years, Edie served faithfully as a Sunday school teacher, treasurer, Vacation Bible School staff member, and youth group leader. After working six years at DuPont, she dedicated thirty years to driving a school bus while raising her family and partnering with her husband to establish Handy's Trailer Park in Carney's Point. Known for her warm hospitality, Edie's open-door policy welcomed a diverse array of dinner guests nearly every night. Her gentle nature and servant's heart touched the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her.

A memorial service for Edith E. Handy will be held at Carney's Point Wesleyan Church (Crosspoint), located at 333 Georgetown Road, on Saturday, March 29, 2025, at 11 a.m. The family will receive visitors from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Edie's memory may be made to the church.

“ I met Edie when I joined the Wesleyan Church around 1965. She was always so kind and gentle and I never ever her say an unkind word about anyone. All her children were so sweet and nice. She was a mentor to many. Rest in Peace dear Edie.

Always remember her smile, she was a kind woman. I remember going over to their home at the trailer park with my father. My father really liked Mr and Mrs Handy. My condolences to the family. Joyce Ficcadenti
