“ So young. I regret not having told you just how much I loved you. You were my rock when the mountains I needed to climb were just to much for me. I wish when I reached the top you were able to continue the journey with me but ...not meant to be I guess. I know you were happy on your own journey and had Marie to walk with you so for that I am very grateful. I will see you again I know I will. Until then...rest in peace.
