“ My deepest sympathy to my dear friend Trudy. Your mom and dad meant the world to me as we grew up in in the First Baptist Church. I will always cherish those Sunday afternoons at your house when we were children.

“ Elizabeth was my aunt and I loved her dearly. She was always interested in my sons and their families. She was still writing me thank you notes when she was 105! I will miss her and her sweet smile. Fay Ferris

“ Mrs. Cook was such a beautiful loving soul. Always presented herself as a true lady in how she dressed. It was truly a blessing to know and love her. She is with her Lord and is at peace.
