Jan Toenbreker, Penns Grove, age 89, went home to Heaven on December 25, 2012. He was born in Amsterdam, Holland on July 28, 1923 and is predeceased by his beloved wife, Anna Louise DeJong Toenbreker who passed away in October 2001. They were married in Holland in 1945 and were married 56 wonderful years before Anna passed away. They are now reunited. He and his family immigrated to the United States in 1957 and settled in Penns Grove, NJ where he started an independent insurance agency in 1963. In 2013 his agency Toenbreker & Associates, Inc. will be celebrating their 50 years of insurance services of which we was so proud. He also leaves his daughter Ronney Mangiocco and also his grandchildren Cos Mangiocco and Kimberly Lapp, and many great grandchildren. Many brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews in Europe are left behind and also his devoted and dear physician, Dr. Joseph Fallon, who took amazing care of him during his lifetime and illnesses. Many dear friends are grieving his departure and he was loved by many and will be sadly missed. He loved living in the United States saying it was the land of opportunity and freedom. He thoroughly enjoyed his computer and surfing the world from his desk in his office, and also loved traveling abroad including Europe and surrounding countries. He was an avid gardener and took much pride in his yard and beautiful Koi pond. A celebration of his life will be held 11 AM on Monday in the Ashcraft Funeral

“ Dear Anita, Ronney and family,
We feel very sorry for your great loss. May you find strength and healing in the memories of the life you shared. Our memory goes back to 1993, when we visited your parents in Penns Grove. We went for a drive in the Lincoln, the car on which he was so proud. Many greetings from Holland, our thoughts are with you at this difficult time.

“ In loving memory of my uncle Jan Toenbreker. Oftewel American Jan zoals hij zichzelf noemde. De oom die voor mijn kinderen altijd de oom was die Gremlins in zijn tuin had. En persoonlijk de power rangers kende. Tijden veranderen, maar herinneringen blijven altijd bestaan. Lieve oom Jan, rust zacht. Anita, Heather, Jenna en de hele familie heel veel sterkte met dit grote verlies. Yvonne, Lies, Henk, Eva, Kim en familie

“ My sympathy to you, Ronney and the grandchildren. I know you will miss him. I have fond memories of him from my visits to the office over the years and from when the girls were little and we would see him socially. Here's to yesterday and all the memories it has given us. May you be comforted by knowing that he is reaping his rewards and reunited with your Mom.
