“ I've been of friend of Margie and Monty's families since childhood; however, it wasn't until a few years ago that I formed a relationship with Jason. He became my generous, kind, and trustworthy mechanic. He served far beyond my expectations. I'm grateful to have had the opportunity to learn the man that he truly became in life. He was rich in friends and love by living a simple and full life. My heartfelt condolences to the family. May the outpouring of love for Jason and his peace in heaven bring some comfort to you during this time of sadness. Sending love and prayers, Michele
