“ My mom took Jessie to the shore one weekend - just Jessie, my mom, and me. I worried that he would be bored with just us two “ladies” and what to do with this young, energetic boy anyway? I had no need to worry! The first thing he wanted to do was race me on the beach. Of course he won the race, but I feel like I won an unlikely bond with him. Here’s a picture from that weekend taken in a photo booth on the Ocean City boardwalk.

“ Carol and all the family,
So saddened to hear of Jessie's passing. He was a great guy helping a lot of people despite his disabilities! We had many great times and conversations at Ross Foggs and was so glad he could come in on ground level! RIP Jessie you are loved and missed. When I first heard the news. I immediately closed my eyes and pictured Jessie running through Heaven's gate with his whole again body! Praise God!
Carol praying for you and sending love to all! 🙏🙏❤️❤️❤�
