“ We met Carol & Jess almost forty years ago when young Jess and our son, Vince ,became best friends at St. James high school. Over the years of sharing pain and comfort we have remained friends. In recent years, young Jess, big Jess and I have enjoyed making (and sampling) our homemade wine next door to the shop. Jess was a great Dad and family man and he will be sorely missed his family and friends.

“ When I was a kid we lived on State Street in Penns Grove right around the block from the Devaults. Mr. Devault was a good man and a great dad who would do anything for his children and he helped the neighborhood kids as well. My memories of Mr.Devault will forever be fond ones. Rest in Peace
