

John Wilson

August 4, 1953 - June 1, 2017

John Wilson passed away peacefully in his home on June 1, 2017, in Pennsville, New Jersey at the age of sixty-three.

John is survived by his wife of nearly fourteen years, Cynthia Wilson of Pennsville, New Jersey, sister Patricia Matthews of Nottingham, England, brother Peter Wilson of Cardiff, Wales, sister Anne Daines and husband Peter Daines of Essex, England, his son David Wilson and fiancée Sophie Stoye of Swindon, England, daughter Sarah Wilson and granddaughter Megan Wilson of Carmarthen, Wales, daughter Jasmin Wilson of Llanybri, Wales, former wife Nansi Wilson, of Llanybri, Wales, stepson Ryan Emmons and wife Judy Emmons of Audubon, New Jersey, and stepdaughter Stefanie Ward and husband Joseph Ward of West Deptford, New Jersey.

John is preceded in death by his father Arthur David Wilson and mother Ivy Bennett of Cardiff, Wales, Great Britain and his sister Joy Dawn Wilson, Cardiff, Wales, Great Britain.

John was born on 4, August 1953 in Cardiff, Wales, and lived in Wales until June of 2003, when he moved to the United States to marry Cynthia.

John attended primary and high school in the United Kingdom, and later obtained his Associateship of the Chartered Institute of Bankers for trustee and estate work. He worked on Grand Cayman island for one year as a Trust Officer. Afterwards, he used his many talents working in roles such as web designer, software operations supervisor, legal bookkeeper, freelance accountant, and most recently, tax assessor clerk for the town of Pennsville, NJ.

John was passionate about conserving our environment and maintaining a small carbon footprint, and was also a member of Greenpeace. He enjoyed using his Longwood Gardens membership with his wife Cindy and family, and often referred to Longwood as his other backyard. He played football for the Llansteffan football league in Wales, and loved to cheer for the Welsh Rugby Union and the Cardiff City Bluebirds football team.

A celebration of his life will be scheduled close to his birthday in August, at his home in Pennsville, New Jersey. All will be welcome to attend the celebration of John's life, and the details will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations in memory of John Wilson to the Abramson Cancer Center of the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. <https://giving.apps.upenn.edu/giving/jsp/fast.do?program=MC&fund=600499&appeal+PMWEB>

The family would like to thank the hematology/oncology staff at the Abramson Cancer Center and the Memorial Home Health and Hospice staff, who gave John excellent care during his journey fighting cancer.
