“ My grandmother, Dolly Jones, worked for Judy's mom when they lived behind Rooks. That's when I met Judy. We must have been about 4 or 5 years old. When my Granny went to work I went and played with Judy. Though we didn't speak often we remained in contact with each other. Last year I was blessed to have lunch with Judy, Almeda Johnson and some of our classmates from class of 63! Once I was aware of her illness we talked more often. I will truly miss my friend.

“ I'm going to miss Judy and our trips to Philadelphia to jewelry district. Also miss our lunch at our favorite restaurant right there. I miss talking to her as we talked every day. She was always there when I needed a shoulder to lean on. She will be truly missed.
