“ Just found out about Judy's passing. So grateful for Jim sending a Christmas card. Judy and I went to Beauty school together. She was my model for a contest. We were students together and friends. Always loved her. We sent Christmas cards every year. She sent pictures of her daughters. I will truly miss her. Prayers and love to her family. Kathy Kobylinski.

“ So sorry that my cousin Judy has gone home to be with her family and with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! I always loved Judy and loved visiting with her family as a child. She and her sister had the best toys in their room and had the best parents! I always thought Judy was beautiful but she was always a gracious host and friend❤️ I will miss our phone calls and lunches and visits! RIP Judy. “ Judy and I were childhood friends attending Sunday School, B.Y.F, and hymn sings at Pedricktown Baptist Church. We kept in touch all these years. Her wry sense of humor always made me laugh. The world has lost one of its best people. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ As a child always enjoyed sleep over! I remember all the little jokes that her sister Carol would do to her! Judy had a fright of bugs, like spider! I never saw someone jump so high and fast! Judy was so much like her mom, pleasant, lady like and sweet! I really admired the love she had for her family and especially for Ji ! Will miss Judy and her smile! Love her and will miss Judy.
