

Kay Cogdill

March 26, 1943 - April 25, 2007

Kay Cogdill (nee Johnson) age 64 of Cape May Court House, formerly of Penns Grove, passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Wednesday, April 25, 2007 at Cape Regional Medical Center, Cape May Court House. Kay was born and raised in Salem, raised her children in Penns Grove and most recently lived in Cape May Court House at Oceana Nursing Facility where she had many friends and had been ill for some time. Kay was born on March 26, 1943 to the late Evelyn Rose and Donald V. Johnson. She was a homemaker and had worked as a home health aide for Salem County Home Health Care. Kay loved nothing more than her children, grandchildren and her cats. Kay had been married to the late Robert A. Cogdill of Mannington and they had 4 children. Surviving to cherish her memory are her children, Linda and her husband, Ken of Bridgeton, son, Brett and companion Maria of Carneys Point, her daughter, Kellie of Mt. Holly, her son Justin of Bridgeton, her grandchildren, Kristin and Michael and their mother, Rosalie of Pennsville and Casey, Bobbi and Jacob of Carneys Point. As well as her brother, W. Frank Johnson and his wife, Wendy of Elsinboro and nieces and nephews who she also cherished. She is predeceased by her sisters, Sue Johnson and Donna Haden and her granddaughter, Francesca DiAntonio. Funeral services will be held 11 AM Saturday in the Ashcraft Funeral Home, 740 S. Broadway, Pennsville where a viewing will be held from 10 to 11 AM. Interment will follow in East View Cemetery, Salem. www.ashcraftfuneralhomes.com
