“ For some reason something told me to check obituaries today, not something I make a habit of, MrStanley will always be remembered for his awesome baby tomatoes and Morgan’s first house for Halloween , still her favorite holiday. She kept running back to you guys from then on.

“ Uncle Kenny
We came to visit but time was not on our side. God called you home before we could see you. Grandpop needed his son for by his side to watch over the rest of the family until we can all be together in heaven. My heart felt condolences go out to my family and friends. You are all always in my prayers for peace and understanding of the heart.

I remember Uncle Kenny buying the red and grey motorcycle from my Dad.

“ Dear Stanley Family, I was so sorry to read of the loss of Kenneth. Your Mother Ada Stanley was a cousin to our Mother Edith Johnson Fisher. Ada was our family genealogist. Kenneth was younger than me but I remember Leila, Paul & Betsy from Johnson family reunions. I believe your grandfather William and my grandfather George were brothers. Sending our sincere condolences to all of you at this sad time. May happy memories comfort you in the days ahead. Thank you for Kenneth's service to our country.

In Deepest Sympathy,

Mary Ella Fisher Bergmann (I have lost my brother Olin but still have my sister Mary Lou)
