

Linda Marker

August 16, 1949 - April 21, 2007

Linda Susan Marker, age 57 of Carneys Point died Saturday, April 21, 2007 at Underwood Memorial Hospital, Woodbury. Born in Chester, PA, she was the daughter of the late John and Dorothy Taylor Conklin. Linda had been employed as a shipping specialist for Exxon-Mobil in Paulsboro for 7 years. She loved her cats and enjoyed playing games, doing puzzles and reading. Linda is survived by two brothers, George Conklin of North Carolina, Richard Conklin of Michigan, three sisters, Connie Huffman of Penns Grove, Joy Newman of North Carolina, Donna Conklin of Bridgeport, NJ and her longtime companion, Valerie Griffith of Carneys Point. Funeral services will be held 11 AM Wednesday in the Ashcraft Funeral Home, 47 State St., Penns Grove where a viewing will be held from 10 to 11 AM. Interment will follow in Eglinton Cemetery, Clarksboro. Memorials may be made to Salem County Humane Society, Game Creek Rd., Carneys Point, NJ 08069. www.ashcraftfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

DA

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Linda was a GREAT lady! She was such a good person, great friend, a truly good person in every way. I'm lucky to have known her.

---

Denise Arena - April 25, 2007 at 06:59 AM

ER

“ Linda was always a helpful and pleasant person to work with. We will miss her at ExxonMobil.

---

eric rich - April 24, 2007 at 10:52 AM

PB

“ To you Valerie and to Linda's family. I would like to express my sympathies to all. I worked with Linda here at ExxonMobil and got to know her and listen to her talk about you all. My deepest sympathies to you Valerie, Linda spoke most of all about you. I know that you have lost a very dear friend and companion. May you meet again in a better place. My thoughts and prayes are with you.
Paula

---

Paula J. Britton - April 24, 2007 at 10:31 AM

RT

“ We will certainly miss you.

---

Rock and Tony - April 24, 2007 at 10:00 AM

BA

“ deepest sympathy to all of linda's family. linda had a heart as big as the great outdoors and a laugh to match. talking about family always brought a smile and a twinkle from her. i will miss our talks when she visited the credit union. bless and comfort all who knew her, an angel shall follow and keep us safe.

---

BRENDA (WELCH) ATTIX - April 24, 2007 at 09:29 AM