Linda was a loving mother and enjoyed spending time with her family, her daughter, her sons, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She also had a passion for reading.

With a heavy heart we are thankful for having had the amazing love and support of our mother, who was also a grandmother and great grandmother who left us to celebrate Thanksgiving with our father...her positive influence will be with us forever and always. We love her dearly and she will be sadly missed.

The family has chosen a private viewing and burial she will be laid to rest next to her loving husband Norman Spears.

“ Thank you Mom-Mom for 40 years of beautiful memories! Thank you for always knowing what to say, for cheering my every accomplishment and for teaching me to never settle. Thank you for loving me, faults and all. I am grateful for the many lessons I have learned through your example. You will never be far from my thoughts. I am sad that you won't be here with us, but I am happy to know that you are in Pop-Pop's arms, which I know is where you belong. Until we meet again, Love your granddaughter, Brenda Lee
