

Loren E Saul Jr

November 15, 1995 - March 5, 2025

Loren E. Saul Jr. , AKA "Bud" AKA "Slappy McGee", 29, a life long resident of Penns Grove and Pedricktown, N.J., passed away on March 5, 2025, from a brief illness at Cooper Hospital in Camden, N.J. He suffered from respiratory arrest, endocarditis, and aortic insufficiency . He was born in Ft. Payne, Ala. on November 15, 1995. Loren is survived by his father, Loren E. Saul Sr., and stepmother Tammy L. Saul ,his mother Roxane Saul, stepbrother Jerry W. Dement III, grandmother Jacqueline Saul, his Aunt Lesa Roberts and Uncle Doug Kohrherr, and Aunt Christine Smith , and his cousins, Victoria Smith and fiancée Tim Massey, T.J. Smith, Wilbert Roberts Jr. and his wife Miranda Roberts. He was predeceased by his grandfather Marvin "Shorty" F. Saul Sr., Uncle Marvin F. Saul Jr., Uncle Charles Thomas Smith Sr., and Uncle Wilbert Roberts Sr. Loren had a profound love for music. He loved drums the most, but he could play drums, bass, guitar, piano, saxophone, and he could even sing. His favorite kind of music was heavy metal. When he was 13 years old, he and his friends, Corey "Little Hands" Michener, Shane "O Mac" Cronin, Anthony "Poop" Montana, and Chris "Bubby" Gray , formed a band called Given Up. He was the bass player. By the time he was 14, his band played at various bars, venues, and charitable events. Loren loved animals, science, the color yellow, and lions. He was so talented that he could fix anything. From roofing to electrical, he could build houses if he wanted to. He loved the outdoors so much and was fearless to anything. He could trick ride bicycles, scooters, skateboards, dirt bikes, and even unicycles. He loved video games.

Loren was so outgoing, funny, and likable - he could befriend anyone. He will be dearly missed and cherished forever by the ones who loved him and with whom he loved. A private celebration of life is to be scheduled.
