“ I knew Lou through his service station beginning about 40 years ago. He was a fine and honest person and a gentleman to deal with. I was in the station just a few days ago inquiring about him. My condolences to his family.

“ Carol, Sue, Steve, Elvira and all: It is so true that Lou was one of the most outstanding human beings this world has ever known. When ever in his presence, you could just feel his warmth, goodness and compassion without words. If anyone goes straight to Heaven, I think Lou would. Just remember, he is with God and out of that dreadful pain.
