“ So many fond memories of childhood visits from Uncle Bubby and Aunt Peg. I'm the daughter of Bubby's brother Ronnie, and it was always a treat when they'd come for a visit to PA - especially New Year's Eve. As a child I remember thinking she must have been some sort of princess.... she was so glamorous and wore the best perfume. They would greet everyone with a warm hug and a peck on the cheek. You knew it would be a fun time as soon as they arrived. They were given my bedroom during the visits, and I'll never forget them leaving me a silver dollar under my pillow each time they left. Quite a big deal for a little kid in the seventies. The smell of Aunt Peggy's perfume would linger in my room for days.... a wonderful reminder of the beautiful princess from the far away land of New Jersey. RIP sweet Aunt Peg.

All three sisters were a pleasure to know. Peggy was my secret sister a couple of times and I knew I was being prayed for faithfully. Peggy also was my senior saint when she was part of a ladies prayer group and I know her heart belonged to Jesus 🙏 she will be missed and I will miss her terribly. See you when I get there sweet Peggy. ~ Patty 💕
