“ Marie was a loving woman who made everyone who knew her feel like they were loved. She was an open and honest person, who would listen when you needed a friend to confide in, and gladly share her knowledge and wisdom with you.

She was passionate about her family, and all of us who became a part of her extended family. I will always cherish my personal memories of her and how she made me feel like a beautiful woman inside and out.

I will love her and all her family for the rest of my life.
