

Marvin Chandler White

March 16, 1957 - December 30, 2024

Marvin Chandler White, 67, of Pilesgrove passed away on December 30, 2024. Raised by his late parents, Marvin and Marilyn White, in Carneys Point, NJ, he was the beloved husband of Mary Ellen (Gagliardi) for 44 years, and a devoted father to Philip, who survive him.

Throughout his adult life, Marvin was a thoughtful man who relished helping others, always willing to lend a helping hand. Many benefitted from Marvin's love of cooking. His derby bean dish was a requested crowd favorite as well as his homemade ice cream. His Christmas breakfast tradition of serving eggs Benedict will be missed. Of course, he was never without his coffee - black and hot - whatever the season.

Marvin enjoyed the outdoors and travel. Some of his pastimes included camping in state and national parks with family & friends, bicycling the carriage roads of Acadia National Park, and riding his motorcycle. He enjoyed listening to music of all genres. In retirement, he could be found glamping and boating at the Jersey shore.

He retired from PSEG and then worked as a substitute teacher for a few years. Before joining PSEG, he was employed by the NJ Casino Control Commission and Bechtel Corporation.

Marvin is also survived by his sister-in-law, Tanya Gagliardi Buckley, her husband, Mike, and their children Colleen and Adam. He cherished his close relationship with his late in-laws, Jeanne and Philip Gagliardi. Marvin was predeceased by his sister, Cynthia Diguglielmo. He is survived by her husband, Dan, and their two sons.

By his design, Marvin's arrangements are private.

“ I will miss seeing Marvin around Woodstown. He was always ready to talk and was always asking about how we were doing in life. He was a good man and people like him were hard to find.

“ I am saddened to hear of Marvin's death. He was devoted to his work in the fire service and protecting folks at PSEG. I worked with Marvin on a number of projects and audits there and it was always a pleasure working with him. Our condolences to the family on your loss and know that it is a loss to our community as well.
