“ She ran the good race. Her mission was done. We all could say good things about people we love. We many times love people for how nice they were..how much they gave..how funny they were but I cannot think of one earthly thing Maryann gave that compares to the Jesus in her. She was saved at a young age at the Wesleyan church. Yes, she as many humans did backslide during her latter teen and younger days but she came back strong. Because of her constant prayers, her husband surrendered his life to the Lord, my mother, father, sisters gave their hearts to Jesus and after several drug and sin infested years, I too surrendered and I am no longer a slave of satan. She never quit. It takes different personalities and the Lord uses different people to win different people. She was not an angel for angels don't understand salvation...she was human. The key is she was 100% for Jesus. Lord, help us all to be this.. Maranatha

Having Maryann as a sister was a big blessing in my life. She was as close to being a saint as anyone could be, in my opinion. There really aren't enough good words that come to mind of describing her sweet demeanor and her love for people. To me she was an angel who walked the earth. Today there is a new angel singing praises in Heaven...her name is Maryann. I will miss her tremendously, but I am comforted knowing that she is happy and with loved ones in Heaven.

“ Sherrie, Spencer, Craig, and Entire family of Mary Ann; I was saddened to hear of your loved ones passing. She was a wonderful, bubbly person and was loved by all that knew her. She especially loved her children, grandbabies and great grands. She will be deeply missed by all that knew her. May God wrap His Loving Arms around all of you as you go through this very sad time. God has taken His Angel home and I know that she will be watching over each and every one of you.

“ Mary Ann was such a sweet person. I remember seeing her with her mother every time I went to yard sales or had one. They were always together and seemed to enjoy each others company. She loved her family and would always speak highly of them. God has an angel now and she is watching down on her family. May God be with you and give you peace. Love you guys.
