She married Dr. William Edward Prigger in 1940 with whom she raised their 2 children, Conrad and Suzanne in Penns Grove, NJ. After Ed's death in 1961 , she was a substitute school teacher in the Penns Grove-Carneys Point School District. In 1973, she married James Knight, a funeral director in Berlin NJ, with whom she enjoyed a life of new experiences and traveled extensively. Upon Jim's death, in 1989, she married Leroy VonderTann and continued to enjoy life residing in Mt. Laurel NJ and West Palm Beach, FL. When Roy passed in 1998, she spent her last years living with her daughter and son-in-law in Woolwich Township, NJ, blessed with good health, and a loving family life and friends.

“ Will always remember the fun nights practicing for Interclub Sing at the Prigger Home, as well as the actual “competitions.” Mrs. Prigger guided us through with ease and grace. A lovely woman with a lovely family. My deepest condolences to you all.
