“ I am very sorry, Clay, Jeannette, Vickie, and to everyone else. I have fond memories of Mary Anne, her laughter and fun personality. I am very sorry that I could not be in the area over the past months to visit and say good bye to Mary Ann. I know that all her fears are now gone as she is now touching the face of our God. And, someday, too, I will see her again on the other side.
Love, Susan
