“ Mike was big part of my best years in high school. We were on the football and baseball teams and later worked at the Holiday Inn and Acme. I'll always remember Mike as funny and carefree, truly a good person.

“ I first want to send my condolences, thoughts and prayers to Mike’s family. I have not seen Mike in many years. However, he was a very well-known and likable man. Most of my memories of Mike are through his niece Nicole (DiTeodoro), along with her father and brother (Arnie), while he was on the police force. Mike always like to have fun, and was so “down to earth” and carefree. I may be going back ALOT of years, but these are my memories of Michael. He was very passionate, empathetic and compassionate, with the people that he crossed paths with. Mike, was the type of person that you could meet for the first time, and just one time, yet still remember and never forget who he was. Not for “living in a small town”, but for the type of person Mike was, and the impact that he had on people. I can remember when I had a softball game at St. James H.S and he was on duty. So Mike decided to throw the sirens on, to make a distraction for the opposing team lol. As with everything in life, it was “the little things” that Mike would do, and “the little things” that he appreciated and did not take for granted, that made him who he was, and why those “little things” made a “big impact” on the lives of people who knew Mike. When I heard that Mike was ill, my heart was heavy. At first, I just thought “Another COVID Victim”. Then I found out that he was battling a larger illness. He was still young when he passed, but God needed another angel, so he called Mike home. As we continue to live our lives, and deal with this national pandemic, etc. We can keep Mike’s memory alive, by doing what he did, and what he would want us all to do..... Appreciate and be grateful for “the little things”. My heart is lighter now, knowing that Mike is in a better place, no more suffering and no more pain. He will be in our hearts and memories , even through our spirit. Miss you Mike, and I know that it has been a long time since we last saw each other. But, I want to thank you for the impact that you made in my life at the time, so for so many other lives that you left an impression on also. I know that you will be watching down on us all, and it’s good to know that we all have another angel on our side. You are loved and will be missed. Until we meet again.....Love always, your friend, Alicia Tucci (and my mom Connie Tucci). 🙏
