

Michael Robert Moore

August 28, 1950 - June 28, 2023

In Loving Memory of Michael Robert Moore

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Michael Robert Moore, a beloved father to four children, Michelle, Raymond, Michaelyn, and Nicholas, and a devoted husband to Peggy Moore. He was also one of eight siblings, including his twin sister, Donna, along with Mary, Betty, and Carol, and brothers John, William, and James.

Born with an adventurous soul, Michael served his country with honor and dedication as a veteran of the Navy. His time in the service instilled in him a sense of discipline and a strong work ethic that carried him throughout his life.

In his younger years, Michael's passion for music led him to DJ at various venues, where he lit up the dance floor with his infectious energy. He was the life of the party, captivating everyone with his magnetic personality and a smile that could brighten the darkest room.

Later in life, Michael faced physical challenges with unwavering strength. Despite enduring back injuries and undergoing brain surgery to remove a cancerous tumor, he remained resilient. Michael's positivity shone through, never allowing his pain to dampen his spirits. He exemplified grace and courage in the face of adversity.

As his mobility became limited, Michael found solace and joy in the world of movies and television. He immersed himself in popular shows like "The Voice," "The Masked Singer," and "American Idol," finding inspiration in the talents of others. Ice cream and baked goods brought him simple pleasures, indulging his sweet tooth and creating moments of happiness.

Above all, Michael was known for his selflessness and generosity. He possessed a heart overflowing with compassion, always ready to lend a helping hand or offer support to anyone in need. He touched countless lives with his genuine kindness and willingness to go above and beyond for others.

Michael Robert Moore will be deeply missed by his family and friends. His memory will forever be cherished and celebrated. Let us remember him for his unwavering positivity, his love for life, and the joy he brought into the world.

He is survived by his four children and his loving siblings: Donna (spouse Rick), Mary (spouse Larry), Betty (spouse Barry), Carol, John (spouse Sharon), William, and James.

May he rest in peace, forever watching over us with that radiant smile.
