“ Dear Toulson family,
Our prayers and condolences go out to each and every one of you. Bobby was so special, loved by all that knew him. He never had an unkind word to say about anyone or anything. We shared many laughs with him at Tom's Tavern and were thrilled when he and Kay stopped to see us in Florida. I know Bobby is looking down on everyone from heaven with that great smile of his.
Sincerely,
Ray & Linda Poeta

“ Aunt Kay,
You are in our Thoughts and Prayers. Uncle Bobby will be sadly missed. He was always so funny. He could always make people laugh. I'm really glad he and my dad got to spend some time with each other, they both need that.
All our Love,
Denise (Toulson), Gionna and McKayla Allen

“ Every summer, when I was a kid, me and my whole family would go help Uncle Bobby with his fruit stand. Those were the days. Still smile whenever I see corn or strawberries. Very sweet childhood memories. Love to you Aunt Kay !! Alice Jean Latham Pulliam
