Ryan "Bubba" Raymond Hoffman, age 30, of Pennsville, NJ tragically passed away and lost his battle with juvenile diabetes on Wednesday, June 26, 2024. Ryan was born in Salem, New Jersey. He was the eldest son of Lisa Marie and Duke Hoffman (Pennsville), and brother to Seth Killian Hoffman (Jillian Smith). He was the Vice President and Engineer for Liberty 1 Fire Company. To know Ryan was to love him. He was a hard worker, helped many people through the years and would give you the shirt off his back if anyone needed it. Ryan loved life, enjoying jet skiing, boating, fishing, wheeling in the Jeep, John Deere Tractors, and diesel trucks. He was an avid train and RC car collector and a member of the West Deptford Train Club. He loved going to the racetrack and watching the trucks and cars fly through the course. Ryan loved being on the river and enjoyed putting his toes in the sand at the beach. He was a true Eagles Fan, GO BIRDS and enjoyed watching the Phillies. Ryan loved his family very much and did everything in his power to enjoy time together even when he was ill. He put family first always. Ryan loved to do things with his hands like fixing anything mechanical and enhancing his truck and jeep, which made him happy.

Ryan is survived by his Mom Lisa Hoffman (Siebold), his father Duke Raymond Hoffman, his brother Seth Hoffman (Jillian Smith), Grandmom Carolyn Allen, Aunt Mimmy Kim Drabold (Uncle Harry, Haylie Rae and Kameron), Cousin Courtney Penn (Mike, Bri, Hayleigh), Goddaughter Anabella Snyder, Gauntie (Joan and Uncle Fluff Duffitt), Uncle Adam Hartsough (Lisa, Erica, Dana), Uncle Donald VanNamee, Uncle Mickey McMann (Michael), Uncles Jamie and David Siebold, and countless family and cousins.
