“ Mr H. Was my unofficial adopted father since i spent more time with the Hill Family than my own. I Was always welcome with open arms to a caring home which provided a safe place for me. Mr H was a man of few words but he and Mrs H, always made me feel like a welcomed part of the family. I will forever hold his memory close to my chest, as it feels like I lost my own father. And even though we hadn't spoken in many yrs I know the world has lost another man that made it a better one. Rest well I'll always love you.
